Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Then I want to know when the pay for the month of Mithunam 1103 was given; was it on the 15th of Karkadagam?

Mr. P. Nilakanta Menon. - Inspectors of Police are not drawing officers. All the pay bills have to be signed by me. Particulars have to be got from the outposts; there will generally be a lot of transfers. All those have to be received in the Head Office and checked and inevitably there should be some delay. But now I am taking particular care that the bills are cashed and payments made as early as possible.

President.—You should see that not more than a week's delay is caused; for every man will be anxious to draw his pay as early as possible.

Mr. P. Nilakanta Menon.—Now I am seeing that the bills ought to be sent before the 5th of every month and it is being carried into effect now.
